

Reservation Form – Digging Through Time

Korazim National Park invites you to touch the past and be archaeologists for a day

At Korazim National Park an ancient Jewish village was discovered including homes, a ritual bath, olive oil presses and numerous artifacts, as well as a magnificent synagogue that is one of the oldest and most impressive structures in Israel!

A wealth of potsherds, glass and coins has so far been unearthed, and even a hoard of gold and silver coins!

- The activity, which lasts 2–3 hours, is suitable for families and groups and is led in English and Hebrew.
- You can include a tour of the site as part of your experience as well as an ancient crafts workshop (at an additional fee).
- The dig is led by an expert archaeologist.

Reservation: Contact the national park office, set a date, fill out this form including payment details, and leave a credit card number as a guarantee.

A tour of the site is included in the price and will be led by the archaeologist on the day of your program.

Hours

- 1. Important: Activities take place during opening hours at the site (08:00–16:00 in winter and 17:00 in summer; Fridays and holiday eves 08:00–15:00 in winter and 16:00 in summer).
- The program may be held before or after the above hours. Additional Fee for early opening or extended hours: NIS 200 per hour.
